Submits further information called for in Serial 4.

The Dy. Commrs. letter no. 223 Dy 2-11-1913 explains the facts of the case.

Kalesappiah and Manjappiah are 2 Sambags of the Kalasa Temple, one of whom looks after the Stores and the other looks to the collection of the Temple revenue. It has been the practice with them to exchange their duties every 3 years. The last change was to have taken place in July 1912.

On a report from the Peshkar dated 22-7-1912, the Amildar directed on 23d August 1912 that the Sambags should exchange their duties at once ~~together~~ and called for explanation for delay. On 7th Septr 1912 Kalesappiah deposed that in the year 1909, the other Sambag Manjappiah gave him charge on the 1st Octr of that year, and that he had no objection to hand over charge on the 1st Octr 1912. The Dy. Commr reports that there is truth in this allegation (vide charge petty).

The Amildar thereupon recommended to the Dy. Commr that due notice under be taken of the conduct of Sambag Kalesappiah who not only failed to hand over charge on the due date but also disobeyed the Huzur's order—

On 16th October 1912, the then Dy Commr Mr. A. Subrahmanya Iyer ordered that the Sambag might be placed under suspension for a year. Kalesappiah gave charge of the office and presented a petition to the Dy. Commr praying for his restoration— On 13th November 1912, the Dy. Commr ordered that if the allegation in the petition viz/ the delay in the handing over of the charge on the previous occasion was true, a recommendation might be made for restoring the man from 1st January 1913. There was some delay in the Taluk office in order to submit a report, and on 23d Jany 1913, the Huzur recommended the restoration of Kalesappiah which was sanctioned by the Dy Commr in his order dated 30.1.13. Kalesappiah took charge of the office on 6th March 1913, after his restoration and prepared all the accounts for the Huzur Jamabandy of 1912-13. The apltt prays that his period of suspension from Novr 1912 to March 1913 may be cancelled, and arrears of pay paid to him

Kalasappiah and Manjappa are Shanbhogs of the Kalasa temple, one of them looking after the stores and the other attending to the collection of temple revenue. It is the practice for these Shanbhogs to exchange their duties once in every 3 years. Accordingly Kalasappiah was ordered by the Amildar in July 1912 to hand over charge of the stores to Manjappiah but Kalasappiah declined to do so on the score that

In view of the fact however that Kalasppiah prepared all the accounts for the Jambandy of 1912-13, the Government are pleased to accept the recommendation of the Dy.
